Welcome readers and writers to IB English III! Below you will find your summer reading requirement and the assignments that accompany the novel. As part of this course, students will read How to Read Literature Like a Professor by Thomas C. Foster and The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald. We encourage you to purchase your own books. If you have your own copies, you will be able to make notes and highlight as you read and then be prepared for discussion. Moreover, should you study these books again in college, your own annotated and highlighted copies will be invaluable. However, if you are unable to purchase these books, see Mrs. Dyer (room 2220) before the end of school.

The Pre-AP, AP, or IB English summer reading assignment is an established convention at most schools offering these courses, and the rationale for it seems simple enough: Reading over the summer helps keep the students’ minds “in the game,” and it adds to the number of major literary works the students will have read by the time they take their AP exams. Also, students in a given class arrive to school in August having had a common literary experience, providing them and their teacher immediate instructional opportunities.

STEPS TO SUCCESS:

STEP 1
Read The Great Gatsby over the summer. Please do not procrastinate! Allow time to read and annotate the novel carefully. (Annotating means to mark the page as you read with comments, questions, and/or notes.) You are not required to complete the attached reading guide, but it is strongly recommended that you at least consider the questions while reading to guide your reflection, interpretation, and analysis.

STEP 2
Complete a color imagery journal for The Great Gatsby. Each time you encounter imagery that uses any reference to color, write the quote and then describe the associations you have with that image. Use the template provided in this packet to get started. You will need to create additional pages to cover the entire novel.

STEP 3
Write down and then define any vocabulary words in the text that are unfamiliar to you. There is no minimum or maximum. The point is simply to expand and improve your vocabulary, which will be immensely helpful to you in IB English III.

STEP 4
Read selected chapters from How to Read Literature Like a Professor (see specific chapter assignments on the study guide). Again, please do not procrastinate! Allow time to read, reflect, and respond accordingly.

STEP 5
Complete the study guide for How to Read Literature Like a Professor. Please provide thorough responses written in complete sentences (unless otherwise noted).

Please note: There is a zero tolerance policy for plagiarism, which includes copying from another student. This does not mean that you cannot have quality discussions about the novel with other students; it simply means that the written work you produce must ultimately contain your original ideas which may or may not have developed as a result of academic dialogue with others.
Where might I find these books?

If possible, students should purchase their own copy of the books. It is an advantage to be able to take notes in the margins and underline or highlight notable passages. You may buy these books cheaply online and find copies at our local bookstores. You may also check out the books from the public library or check out a digital copies from the LISD OverDrive Digital Library (see information below).

If these options are not viable, we do have a limited number of copies available at school, but these may not be annotated or marked in any way. These books will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis. Those interested may contact Mrs. Dyer (room 2220) preferably before leaving school for the summer.

Introducing OverDrive Digital Library

Leander ISD Libraries expanded their services to include audiobooks and eBooks, which are available for students and teachers to download and enjoy for up to two weeks. Using this new service, LISD library card holders can check out and download digital media anytime, anywhere by visiting http://digitallibrary.leanderisd.org.

Users may browse the library’s website, check out with a valid library card, and download to PC, Mac®, and many mobile devices. To use the service, students will need to install free software — OverDrive® Media Console™ will be required for audiobooks and Adobe® Digital Editions will be required for eBooks. Titles can be enjoyed immediately or transferred to a variety of devices, including iPod®, Sony® Reader™, and many others. Some audio titles can also be burned to CD to listen on-the-go. Titles will automatically expire at the end of the two-week lending period and there are no late fees or loss of materials.

This new service, powered by OverDrive, is free for students and teachers. Patrons can login by using their district username and password credentials.

To get started downloading audiobooks, eBooks, and more, visit http://digitallibrary.leanderisd.org. For additional OverDrive tips and FAQ’s, visit http://ldl.leanderisd.libguides.com/OverdriveHelpTips.

Expectations:

You are expected to have read and completed the activities for The Great Gatsby and How to Read Literature Like a Professor by the first class meeting of the school year. Bring the texts with you on the first day of school, and be prepared for an exam and/or project for a major grade within the first few weeks of school. I am not interested in what Cliff's Notes, Spark Notes or Monarch books have to say about these texts. Your ideas are as valid as anyone's and, as a result, I want to read your thoughts and insights.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact one of the teachers below. Have a good summer!

Teacher: Jennifer Dyer – jennifer.dyer@leanderisd.org

3. What is Gatsby's perception of Daisy's family home?
4. Characterize Gatsby and Daisy's initial relationship.
5. As the narration shifts from the flashback of Gatsby's relationship with Daisy, Nick describes the morning. What are some of the significant images found in the description and why does Fitzgerald include this description?
6. How does Nick describe Gatsby after Nick gives him the first and only compliment? Does Nick mean what he says to Gatsby? How do you know?
7. Nick relays second-hand information about what happens after they left Wilson's garage. Is this information accurate? Why or why not?
8. What is the significance of Wilson staring into the eyes of TJ Eckleburg when he admonishes his wife's behavior?
9. How does Nick imagine Gatsby feels when no phone call from Daisy comes? What specific images does Nick use to describe these feelings and why did Fitzgerald choose them?
10. Of the images Nick uses to describe the pool when he arrives at Gatsby's house, which are most notable and why?

Chapter 9
1. Why is Nick the authority on Gatsby?
2. Meyer Wolfsheim won't come to Gatsby's. Why is it so important to Nick that he comes?
3. What does Nick say is his middle-west? What nightmarish images does he use to describe the east?
4. How does Nick react to Tom when he sees him again? Why does Nick call Tom careless then?
5. To what does Nick finally compare Gatsby's green light? What is the thematic significance?
6. What metaphor does Nick create in the last line of the novel? What connotative images does this evoke?
Connotation: the associated or secondary meaning of a word or expression in addition to its explicit or primary meaning. For example, a possible connotation of “home” is “a place of warmth, comfort, and affection” (www.dictionary.com).

As you read, note each occurrence of any imagery that uses any reference to color. Write the quote and then describe the associations you have with that image and the referenced color(s). You will need to add additional pages. This is just a template.

40. About what does Foster warn readers?

Chapter 26 pp. 235-244 “Is He Serious? And Other Ironies”

41. Explain what Foster means by “irony trumps everything”

42. Foster defines irony on p. 240 like this: “What irony chiefly involves, then, is ____________________________” Explain what he means by this.

43. There are three types of irony in literature:
   a. Verbal irony (character says opposite of what is expected)
   b. Situational irony/Structural irony (situation or event plays out in an opposite or abnormal way- not like expected)
   c. Dramatic irony (audience/reader knows more than characters know)

Identify one example of each type of irony that Foster has presented in this chapter or earlier in the book and write it out.

Chapter 27 pp. 245-277 “A Test Case”

44. Complete the task that Foster sets out for you on pp. 265 & 266. Be prepared to participate in a class discussion about it.
